SENATE PASSES RELIEF MEASURE

Approves Bill Appropriating $100,000,000 to Furnish Food for Europe.

VOTE STANDS 53 TO 18

Three Democrats and Fifteen Republicans Oppose Granting Request of President Wilson for Emergency Fund.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The senate after a week of spirited debate, by a vote of 53 to 18, passed the administration bill appropriating $100,000,000 for food relief in Europe and the Near East. The fund was urged by President Wilson as a means of checking the westward spread of Bolshevism. The measure now goes to conference for adjustment of minor senate amendments but leaders believe final enactment will be accomplished next week. Senator Martin of Virginia, the Democratic leader, and Overman of North Carolina, and Warren of Wyoming, were appointed senate conferees.

One Important Change.
The most important senate amendment changed the house section against feeding enemy people so that nationalities friendly to the United States and the Allies may be aided. Amendments designed to limit the power of President Wilson or Food Administrator Hoover in distribution of the fund were rejected recently by the senate and no final effort was made today for their adoption.

On the final roll call 15 Republicans and three Democrats voted against the bill's passage, while 34 Democrats and 19 Republicans joined in its support. Senators Sutherland of West Virginia and Nelson of Minnesota absent, were announced as favoring the measure.

Senator Cummins of Iowa, Republican, and Thomas of Colorado, Democrat, who were present but paired, announced that they opposed the bill. It also was announced that Senator Vardaman of Mississippi, who was absent, would have voted in the negative.

Opponents Make Last Stand.
Opponents of the bill made a final stand against it today with Senators La Follette of Wisconsin, Borah of Idaho and Sherman of Illinois, Republicans, leading the fight. Senators Knox of Pennsylvania, Colt of Rhode Island and Smith of Michigan, spoke in support of the appropriation.

Senator La Follette said the bill was neither a war, peace nor charitable measure and declared that the "horns and hoofs of the beef trust" could be seen through the bill's "mantle of charity." Declaring the unemployment situation in America was "grave and menacing," Mr. La Follette said government resources should be used for American problems rather than to aid European peoples.

EXECUTIONS ARE PLANNED

Reds Will Put to Death Many Persons at Petrograd.

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 25.—Petrograd is being left to the mercy of gangs of robbers, formed of escaped criminals, who are dividing the town into districts for looting purposes, according to the newspaper Rusky Listok.

The greater proportion of the persons now interned in Petrograd will be executed, it is predicted, and their women and children left to shift for themselves.

WILLARD AGREES TO FIGHT

Champion Signs to Meet Any Opponent for $100,000.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—A purse of $100,000 drew Jess Willard, the heavy-weight champion, out of retirement. Tex Rickard, famous promoter of the Joe Gans-Battling Nelson fight and the heavy-weight championship battle between Jim Jeffries and Johnson, obtained Willard's signature to a set of articles to fight any opponent. He agreed to box any number of rounds up to 40. The match will be decided next July, probably on the Fourth. Willard will receive $100,000, win, lose or draw.

Rickard said that either Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight, or Jack Dempsey, who has been clamoring for a match with the champion, would be Willard's opponent.

MOTHER KILLS 5 CHILDREN

All Were Sick and Asleep in Bed When Slain.

Sherman, S. D., Jan. 25.—The five sick children of Mrs. Clara Hanson, wife of the town marshal, are dead, slain by the hand of the mother.

Declaring she did not want to see the children suffer longer, the mother killed them one by one with a pistol, and then shot a bullet into her head. She is in a critical condition.

The children were slain in their beds while asleep. "I killed them because they were better dead than sick," the mother is reported to have told her husband and neighbors.

Sixty-two Persons, Many of Them College Instructors, are Accused of Radicalism.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The senate committee investigating German propaganda put into the record a list of names of 62 men and women, many of them instructors in colleges and universities, who, Archibald Stevenson, of the Military Intelligence Bureau, had testified earlier in the week, "hold radical and pacifist views." Mr. Stevenson said the names were obtained in investigations by the Military Intelligence Bureau.

Included in the list, which the witness designated as a "who's who" are the names of Miss Jane Addams of Chicago; Frederic C. Howe, commissioner of immigration at New York; David Starr Jordan, chancellor emeritus of Leland-Stanford Jr. University; Morris Hillquit, Scott Nearing, Oswald Garrison Villard and Eugene V. Debs. When Mr. Stevenson referred to the list last Wednesday during his testimony the senate committee went into executive session to decide whether the names should be inserted into the record of the investigation but no decision was announced until now.

King Nicholas of Montenegro Looking After His Job

By Wm. Phillip Simms (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, Jan. 25.—King Nicholas, the aged ruler of Montenegro, believes his nation should enjoy the same right of self determination as larger countries. He expressed confidence today that the peace congress will enforce the application of this principle. "In an interview with the United Press Nicholas declared that Serbia is attempting to force Montenegro to join with Serbia in the formation of a Jugo-Slav state. This alleged attitude of Serbia is believed to have constituted one of the elements which resulted in this warning issued yesterday by the supreme war council that claims to territory seized by an army will not receive recognition from the peace congress. Nicholas, who is living in the Hotel Rue de Rivoli is watching the peace conference closely to determine whether he is to be a king without a kingdom, or the ruler of an independent nation. He declared he is an enthusiastic supporter of President Wilson's policies and that he is willing to abide by the Wilson test.

ASK REGULATION OF STOCK PRICES

Presidents of Two Meat Packing Firms Say Stable Market Will Result.

HENEY ASKS QUESTIONS

J. Ogden Armour Appears Before Senate Agriculture Committee, Louis F. Swift Before House Commerce Body.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Presidents of two meat packing firms which do an annual business of about $2,000,000,000 urged before congressional committees the regulation of live stock prices so as to assure a stable market, either through continuing the food administration or by establishing some similar system of control.

Swift and Armour Heard.
Louis F. Swift of Swift & Co., concluding an appearance of two days before the House Interstate Commerce committee, said a stable price over periods of production was desirable and declared that if food administration restrictions were removed now, disaster would result.

J. Ogden Armour of Armour & Co., told the Senate Agriculture committee that some means of assuring a price level for some time would be agreeable to the packers, repeating reasons he had outlined earlier before the house committee.

Member of each committee evinced considerable interest in the statements of the packers and Representative Stephens of Nebraska announced he thought there ought to be some government agency to control prices irrespective of war conditions.

Henev Asks Questions.
Examination of Mr. Armour developed new interest when the senate committee asked Francis J. Henev, who conducted the Federal Trade commission's investigation of the meat packing industry, to question the witness. Unfairness of method and inaccuracy in deduction are some of the complaints which the packers have made against the commission's inquiry and Senator Page of Vermont, inquired if the committee's hearing was to "degenerate into a prosecution."

Levy Mayer, counsel for Mr. Armour, consented to the examination on being accorded the privilege of questioning witnesses.

Violent fluctuations of prices were predicted by Mr. Swift if food administration control should be removed.

Like Mr. Armour, however, he seemed dubious that governmental control over the sale of livestock at agreed prices would be practicable in normal times.

"Anything that will make for a steady average price is better than the same price reached through sharp declines and increases," Mr. Swift said.

LEADERS ARE WORRIED

Strike Epidemic in Berlin Causing Great Anxiety.

Gas Workers Compel Granting of Six-Hour Day and Large Increase in Wages.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—Socialist leaders are showing uneasiness at the strike epidemic in Berlin, and particularly the strikes of the electric, gas and other municipal workers whose position enables them to extort compliance with their demands from public or private employers.

In common with the bourgeoisie press, the Socialist Vorwaerts points out the disloyal nature of the strike of electric workers by which hundreds of thousands suffered great hardships. The aldermen of Charlottenburg, a working class district of Berlin, at a common council meeting criticized the workers' attitude. The criticism came from members of all parties.

The employees of the city gas works, who were granted an eight-hour day only recently, have now, under a threat to paralyze the gas supply, compelled the granting of a six-hour day and an increase in wages amounting to 12,500,000 marks annually.

MEN CAN STAY IN SERVICE

Soldiers Need Not Leave Army While Work is Scarce.

Washington, Jan. 25.—To solve the problem of unemployed discharged soldiers, the War Department ordered that no man be discharged from the army against his desire until such time as he can obtain employment in civil life.

It was announced that orders had been telegraphed to all department and division commanders at Secretary Baker's direction to retain all men who desire to remain temporarily in the service without prejudice to their subsequent discharge.

3,700,000 RIFLES ON HAND

Ordnance Department Also Has Large Ammunition Supply.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Maj. Gen. C. T. Williams, chief of ordnance, described to the house military committee steps taken by his department to prevent the country from going back to the state of unpreparedness it was in before the war.

"The Ordnance department now has 3,700,000 rifles, 2,000,000,000 rounds of ammunition and enough artillery ammunition to supply 48 divisions for six months," said General Williams. "Similarly large quantities of other equipment is being held."

Paris Paper Says Wilson is Likely to Be Offered Presidency of World Body.

INDORSES INDEMNITIES

President Agrees to Principle That Germany Must Pay Indemnities and Make Reparation—Slav Leaders Oppose Meeting.

Paris, Jan. 25.—The peace congress has decided to appoint a committee to inquire into the strength of the forces to be maintained by the Allied and associated powers on the western front during the period of the armistice.

The committee will be composed of Marshal Ferdinand Foch, General Tasker H. Bliss, General Diaz, Winston Spencer Churchill, the British minister of war, and M. Loucheur, French minister of reconstruction.

Paris, Jan. 25.—The Echo de Paris says President Wilson may be offered the presidency of the commission of the league of nations. By the commission of the league of nations probably is meant the permanent executive body for the conduct of the proposed league's affairs.

Russian leaders here think that the decision of the supreme council of the peace congress to invite bolshevik leaders to a conference constitutes the greatest victory that bolshevism could ever hope to attain. It would not be surprising, however, if the bolsheviks would refuse to participate in the meeting, they say, using the same "impertinent language" which they have already adopted in their communications with President Wilson.

Sergius Sazanov, former Russian foreign minister, and Prince Lvov are united in their opposition to the plan, insisting that the nonbolshevik element of Russia, which is largely in the majority here, will be adversely influenced by the decision.

Wilson Indorses Indemnities.
During consideration of the question of reparation at the meeting of the supreme war council, the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail says, President Wilson agreed to the principle that Germany must be made to pay indemnities in addition to the full cost of reparation.

At the instance of the British representatives, the newspaper adds, discussion was also begun on the questions of the abolition of conscription and general disarmament. It says it is possible that the plenary session of the peace congress will give some attention to these questions.

In the future, the Daily Mail says, there will be one full meeting of the full peace conference each week.

The second session of the peace congress will be open to the press like the first.

The first subject will be international legislation on labor. Various national delegates have been preparing written statements of their views and these will be received by the congress and referred to a committee, which will endeavor to amalgamate them into a general project.

Slump in Rail Earnings.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Railroads in 1918 under government control and unusual war conditions earned about $718,000,000 or $250,000,000 less than in 1917, $370,000,000 less than in the record year of 1916, and about the same as in 1915. This became apparent on the basis of definite reports to the Interstate Commerce commissioner of earnings of 195 principal railroads. Although subject to slight revision, the figures afforded the first public view of the results of railway operations last year.

Workers in Fear OF LOWER WAGES
THEIR LEADERS PREDICT THAT BREAD LINES AND STRIKES WILL BE THE RESULT.
MAY PAY THE CABINET MORE

Those Who Have Resigned Say Sat. is Way Too Small—Cutaway Coat Is Becoming the Favorite Garb Among the Senators.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington.—The widespread belief, which seems to be gaining ground, that wages must be reduced has caused considerable apprehension among laboring people. Already labor leaders are talking about possible bread lines if production in this country ceases or falls off to any large extent. Then strikes are predicted if attempts are made to reduce wages. Some of the wisest among our statesmen are expressing the view that labor ought to be the last commodity to be reduced in price, and that when the purchasing power of money is greater, then wages can be reduced accordingly.

Since President Wilson was inaugurated the first time, March 4, 1913, five members of his cabinet have resigned. One, McReynolds, went to the Supreme bench. Another, Garrison, went out because of a disagreement with the president in regard to organizing the army. Three, Bryan, McAdoo and Gregory, retired for various reasons, but all of them made the statement that they could not live on the salary of $12,000 a year. The time is not far distant when there will be a great effort made to increase the salaries of cabinet officers in order that no such excuse may be given for not having the very best men to serve the country.

There is quite a change in the senate in the matter of uniform or dress. It is common in these days to speak of clothes as uniform. It is noticeable in the senate that the cutaways are driving out the "Jim Swingers." The latter is the term applied by certain southern men to the long frock coat which was habitually worn by southern statesmen. In fact the average southern congressman at one time did not think he was properly clothed unless he was wearing his "Jim Swinger." The cutaway is also encroaching upon the sack, or business coat, which was at one time affected to some extent by many members of the senate, particularly those from northern and business sections. Perhaps the time will come when the cutaway will be the uniform of the senate.

"I present a paper by one Henry F. Ashurst, entitled 'Arizona the Old-New State, Rich in Scenic Grandeur, Romance, History, and Natural Resources.'"
That remark was made in the senate by Senator Ashurst of Arizona. Senator Thomas of Colorado in a satirical manner remarked that Ashurst was taking advantage of his colleague, Mark Smith, who was absent, and was filling up the Record with extraneous subjects. However, it was printed and in a brief manner contained all that Ashurst claimed for it. It also contained a great deal of Ashurst's picturesque language.

While there has not been any very great decrease in the number of khaki-clad soldiers in Washington, the dark blue of the navy is disappearing more rapidly. There were a great many naval reserves here during the war, women as well as men, and while they are still to be seen around the department, their ranks are growing thinner.

Senator Weeks of Massachusetts and the pleasure of reading a story in a Boston paper from a private soldier which described how his son, Captain Weeks of the artillery, by his own personal efforts and in grave danger of his life all the time, saved a dozen private soldiers who had been gassed and were suffocating in a trench. Naturally Senator Weeks has taken great pride in the success his son has made in the war.

Wants Power Modified.
Washington, Jan. 25.—Withdrawal immediately by congress of the arbitrary powers possessed by the President to fix freight rates was asked by Clifford Thorne, representing various shippers, before the senate interstate commerce committee. He said incalculable injury would be suffered by shippers unless this was done. Mr. Thorne told the committee that government operation of railroads was "so distasteful among the shippers that were a popular vote taken today, it would be defeated overwhelmingly."

'Ware Souvenirs.

Even "kultur" has its limitations. One of these is brought out in a letter from Private Ralph G. Kilbon of the Sixteenth engineers. He says: "I am in a dugout that was very hastily abandoned by a 'kultured' Boche. He was 'kultured' enough to have a nice feather tick in his bunk, which I appreciate in spite of the fact that even his 'kultur' didn't keep it from being alive. However, he left me his helmet for a box and plenty of candles to light up the place. There is everything in the line of souvenirs that one could ask, but everything I have goes on my back, with an overcoat, blankets, raincoat, shelter tent and extra clothes, so the souvenirs will stay just about where they are, unless somebody comes along with a truck."

Jack of All Trades.

Edinburgh once enjoyed the distinction of possessing the most prolific signboard on record: "John Main, Stationer. Bibles, Testaments, Psalms, Hymns, Prayer Books, Catechisms, Proverbs, Books, new and old, in various branches of literature. Money or exchange for old Books; Papers, Pens, and Ink; Wax and Wafers; Black-boards, Hair and Hair Pencils; Coloured Books, Memorandum Books, Religious Tracts. Books neatly bound, on moderate terms."

Drama League

The regular meeting of the Drama League will be held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Cobb, 415 North Broadway, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. "Misalliance" (Bernard Shaw) will be read by Mrs. Irma C. Hartley. Members will please be on hand at three o'clock sharp.

Railroading.

Clyde Foster, a south side youngster, has been much impressed recently by warnings about the care of his health so that he would not "catch" the influenza and die and be taken to the cemetery. His father is a railroad man, and when Santa Claus came around Clyde received a fine choo-choo train. He was proudly exhibiting it to some neighbors, who asked how much it cost to ride on his train. "Three dollars," he said. "Where can you go for $3?" one asked. "Crown Hill," Clyde promptly answered.—Indianapolis News.

What Johnny Needed.

"Johnny! Crying on Christmas day!" reproved the visitor. "Well," blubbered Johnny, "we all asked our family this year to give us what we needed most." "There's nothing to cry about, then, is there?" "It's b-beastly!" roared Johnny. "Pa gave me a licking."—London Answers.

CLAIM CURE FOR GLANDERS

Italian Savants' Discovery, If True, Will Have Earned Them the Gratitude of Mankind.

The reviews of medicine and veterinary surgery speak of important researches looking to the cure of glanders, which afflicts horses and may also attack man, who almost invariably succumbs.

At the beginning of the war the spread of glanders, especially among the quadrupeds of the Third Italian army, suggested to Colonel Commanding Dr. E. Bertelli, director of the veterinary service of the army, the idea of utilizing the victims of glanders in making experiments in regard to its curability.

Obtaining permission of the war ministry and the supreme command of the army, the experiments were begun at Casale in a sanatorium rigorously quarantined and equipped with all the latest scientific and surgical appliances.

Dr. Guido Finzi, head of the Institute of Pathology and Medical Clinics of the Superior Veterinary School of Turin, assisted Doctor Bertelli. After two years they announced that glanders was curable, not only in its chronic stages but also in its process of evolution.

PUT HYPNOTISM TO GOOD USE

Australian Physician Announces That He Has Cured War Stammering by Its Employment.

Writing in the Medical Journal of Australia, Dr. Clarence G. Godfrey states that during the past two years a number of cases have been referred to him for treatment by hypnotic suggestion, in which stammering or stuttering had developed, or had been revived, after years of disappearance, as the result of shell shock or of various war stresses. Sometimes a hypnotized patient has been told to keep on repeating some well-known nursery rhyme and not to cease at the signal to awake, although in the middle of the rhyme, but to keep on talking. He will usually manifest his astonishment at finding himself talking without difficulty. Sometimes a patient will converse on waking without realizing that his stammering has disappeared until his attention is drawn to it with amusing effect. In one case the patient spoke perfectly in sleep at the first attempt to hypnotize him, although he had had a very bad stutter for eight months past, being almost inarticulate. He woke in a few minutes apparently cured and has been free from stutter ever since.

It has been noticed that every case treated, even the worst, has been able to speak far better in the hypnotic state than out of it.

Little-Known Hero.

Of the many stories of heroism during the war on which official records are silent but which are being brought forth with relaxation of the censorship is that of Captain Larcombe of the anti-aircraft defenses of the London (Eng.) district. His job for four years has been to find and dispose of German aerial bombs that failed to explode when dropped on London.

After each air raid, and in the early part of the war there were many, Larcombe and his men would go about the city seeking the "duds." It was dangerous work extricating them from wherever they happened to drop, transporting them out of the city and exploding or otherwise destroying them. During the excitement after a raid few people thought of the bombs that failed to "go off," but all of them have ceased to be a menace to the city.

Laughter.

"Laughter is man's own attribute," says Rabelais, and from the time man began to think of other matters than eating and wagging war he has wooed laughter in some form or other according to his ideas of what is comical. The early pictured jokes on canvas, stone and paper are not conducive to wild hilarity at this day and age, but they amused the people of the time and in making men laugh helped to civilize the race.

BONDS MUST BE SOLD AT PAR WITH ACCRUED INTEREST

A representative of a bonding company conferred with the members of the city council recently it is reported, concerning the water bonds which it is hoped the voters will authorize at the spring election to build a new water plant. It is understood that he stated his company could handle the bonds drawing five per cent at 97 cents on the dollar, and many business men thought the offer a good one.

There was a case decided in the district court here now in session wherein the county of Koochiching recovered a verdict of many thousands of dollars from John Nuveen & Co., of Chicago, because the county commissioners of that county sold to the Chicago bankers county bonds for less than par, when a state law requires that county bonds shall not be sold for less than par and accrued interest, the amount of the verdict being the difference between the amount paid for the bonds and the par value thereof, and accrued interest. The court on that occasion instructed the jury that the contract for the sale of the bonds was fraudulent because of its evasion of the law.

The city charter of the city of Brainerd has a similar provision with reference to the sale of city bonds, hence according to the verdict of this jury and the instructions of the judge on that occasion, no offer for city bonds below par and accrued interest would be legal, and cannot be accepted.

The plan advanced by the company of paying full amount or par for the bonds and charging three per cent for supervising their issue is an evasion of the law and has been held so by the courts, and would not alter the situation.

Poor Fellow—Yer right; it was a shame, leddy. They put me here just fer tryin' to open up a little business.

Poor Fellow—The little business on the front of a safe.

NO PENALTY IS PROVIDED

Profiteering by Retail Food Dealers Is Unlawful.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Profiteering by retail food dealers is unlawful—but that's all. There is no prescribed punishment for violators.

This announcement was made by the Food Administration following complaint that retail food dealers in New York and other cities are profiteering by failure to reduce prices for eggs, butter, veal, pork and other foods, in keeping with the recent reductions in wholesale prices.

New Irish Home Rule Party.

Dublin, Jan. 25.—A new political association called the Irish Center party, has been formally constituted. Stephen Gaynor, former member of parliament, was appointed chairman of the provisional executive committee of the new party, which embraces the constitutional nationalists and southern Unionists. Its platform includes home rule for Ireland within the British empire on similar lines to those which are adhered to throughout the British dominions.

Portugal Capital Scene of Latest Announcement.

War Vessels Bombard Oporto, Held by Monarchists, Is Report—Rumors of Manuel's Return.

London, Jan. 25.—The widely circulated rumor that former King Manuel of Portugal was about to land on Portuguese territory is at least premature. Ex-King Manuel was still in London as this dispatch is sent.

Madrid, Jan. 25.—According to a telegram received here from Valencia on the Portuguese border, a monarchy has been proclaimed in Lisbon, the capital of Portugal.

Oporto Bombarded.

London, Jan. 25.—A wireless dispatch received from Madrid says reports from frontier towns are to the effect that Portuguese war vessels are bombarding Oporto, which is still in the control of the monarchists.

The dispatch adds that rumors persist that former King Manuel is about to land in Portugal.

BAKER WELCOMES INQUIRY

Secretary Favors Probe of War Department Affairs.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The War Department will welcome a congressional investigation either into the affairs of the department or the conduct of the war, Secretary of War Baker and Chief of Staff March told the House Rules committee. If this action is taken, Secretary Baker promised that testimony of officers who have been in France would be made available.

Secretary Baker declared, however, that an accurate investigation, such as called for in a resolution by Representative Campbell of Kansas, into reports that the 35th division had suffered abnormal casualties because of faulty handling and poor care, was difficult at this time because the officers who had information as well as documents were all overseas.

Held to Be Only Solution of Troubles of Russia.

London, Jan. 25.—Paul N. Milukoff, former foreign minister of Russia, who is in London, was surprised when told that the Allies had invited the Bolsheviks of Russia to a conference. He said:

"The Bolsheviks are in no wise representative of the Russian people. They are robbers and cut-throats; mad dogs, dogs who wish to bite others so that all may be mad."

Washington, Jan. 25.—The first open opposition to seating Victor Berger of Wisconsin as a member of the house came in a statement from Representative Gillett of Massachusetts, candidate for speaker in the next congress. Gillett said that the refusal to seat Berger should be the very first act of the next house, because Berger was found guilty of charges of disloyalty. "The evidence convinces me of his disloyalty and I believe the country generally approves the verdict of the jury."

Daily Health Talks

GOING BACK TO NATURE.

BY DR. W. LUCAS.

People get sick because they go away from Nature, and the only way to get well is to go back. Something grows out of the ground in the form of vegetation to cure almost every ill. Some of these vegetable growths are understood by man, and some are not. Animals, it would seem, know what to do when they are sick better than men and women. Observers have noted that a sick horse, dog or cat will stop eating food and seek out some vegetable growth in the field or yard, which, when found and eaten, often restores appetite and health. Haven't you seen these animals do this very thing yourself?

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found the herbs and roots provided by Nature to overcome constipation, and he had these vegetables collected and made up of Mayapple, leaves of Aloe, root of Jalap, into little white sugar-coated pills, that he called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. You must understand that when your intestines are stopped up, poisons and decayed matter are imprisoned in your system, and these are carried by the blood throughout your body. Thus does your head ache, you get dizzy, you can't sleep, your skin may break out, your appetite declines, you get tired and despondent. As a matter of fact, you may get sick all over. Don't you see how useless all this suffering is? All that is often needed is a few of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which he has placed in all drug stores for your convenience and health. Try them by all means. They are probably the very thing you need right now.

BOB SLAY

Six wounds and the burden of the Distinguished Service Cross, the Croix de Guerre and a number of citations in army orders cannot keep a smile from the bandaged face of Bob Slay, of the Seventy-seventh Division. As he put it when he was photographed during a stroll in New York city: "I'm lucky, I'm back home. That's enough, isn't it?"

Avery's Pride.

Conservative—By the way, Avery, I understand you want the universal franchise?

Avery—Yes!

Con.—Why, man, do you want your wife to become a politician?

Avery—It isn't that exactly. Fact is, she has always been a politician.

Con.—Well, what is the reason?

Avery—Pride, pride, my boy—pure brute, male pride!

Con.—How so? I don't see the connection.

Avery—I don't like the idea of being married to a human being who is classed with the idiots!—London Tit-Bits.

United States' Flyers.

In his recent annual report Maj. Gen. William L. Kenley, director of military aeronautics, states that 4,980 men had been graduated as reserve military aviators, the first rating for pilots, by June 30, last, with 110 bombers, 85 bombing pilots, 464 observers, 389 observer pilots, and 131 pursuit pilots. In the year ended last June 30 there were 152 fatalities in training, or an average of one death to 2,684 hours and 201,000 miles flown. Stalled engines, usually due to an error of the pilot, caused 86 deaths; collisions, 30; and sideslips, 10. The report goes on further to state that 440 balloon officers also had graduated, 155 of whom were fully qualified observers during the year.—Scientific American.

World's Deaf-Mutes.

The amateur student of statistics will find plenty to ponder over in the figures as to the distribution of deaf-mutes throughout the world. A recent report on this phase of the census of the United States gives the proportion as 42.8 per 100,000, and shows that in the group of countries whose figures is 50 or less all are English-speaking except Holland.—Oregonian.

THE PROTESTANT CHURCHES OF CITY

Working Toward a Program of Cooperation to be Mutually Beneficial to All

COMMITTEE MEETING HELD

Final Report to be Submitted to the Ministers at their Association Gathering Monday

The protestant churches of Brainerd are working toward a program whereby they can cooperate along lines that will be mutually beneficial to all of them as well as for the moral and religious benefit of Brainerd. Several meetings have already been held for the purpose of finding a basis on which they can get together and much progress has been made. Yesterday the committee appointed for that purpose met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and prepared its final report which will be first submitted to the ministers at their association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Monday at 11 o'clock. It will then go before the representative meeting consisting of the pastor and one layman from each church, which will be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Some of the lines of work that are proposed are church publicity, religious census of the city, simultaneous evangelistic and other campaigns that may be mutually helpful.

It is recognized by all that this is a move in the right direction and it is expected that much good will come of it.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS STRONG

Poll More Than Ten Million Votes in German Elections.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—The German Social Democracy polled more than 100,000,000 votes in the elections of last Sunday, according to the Freiheit, as against 125,000,000 in the last Reichstag elections. Twenty added mandates would give them an absolute working majority in the national assembly. The majority Socialists are conceded to have received 8,000,000 votes and the independents a trifle under 2,000,000.

For Employers' Consideration.

More can be done in their work while they live purely from hand to mouth, and you cannot spread habits of intelligence among the laboring class if their means are too poor or their leisure too short to enable them to participate in the culture that is going on around them.—Exchange.

ROLL OF HONOR

Seaman Albert Broman, Dispatch printer, returned home last night from New York, having secured his honorable discharge. He came home within a week of the time Private Anton Swanson, brother printer of the Dispatch, was honorably discharged from the army. Broman's return was a complete surprise to his parents.

FIRST SOLDIER ORGANIZATION

Sergt. G. P. Hanson to Establish Soldiers Club at 622 Elm Street, Northeast

TO DUPLICATE SOLDIERS GYM

Orchestra, Dancing Class, Boxing and Wrestling Classes, Quartet and Singing Society

A soldiers organization, the first of its kind in Brainerd, has been announced in Northeast Brainerd.

Sergeant G. P. Hanson, who has just returned from the army, has secured the Van Walk property under construction as a dwelling and no further work is to be done making changes until spring. He will use the same and duplicate the soldier gymnasium of the army cantonments.

A reorganization of the Northeast Brainerd band is planned. Sergt. Hanson will train his orchestra and while rehearsing, has engaged George Safford, formerly of Minneapolis, to instruct a class in dancing, of whom thirty have been gained.

Instructors in boxing and wrestling, Messrs. Rash and Hubert, are to be gained.

Mr. Safford, who is a tenor singer, will organize a quartet and singing society. Proceeds above expenses of the club will at different times be donated to charitable purposes subject to the direction of the managers.

Sergt. Hanson also belonged to the Marine Corps and served his country during the South American trouble some years ago. In the late war he was advanced rapidly on account of his former service and training. He is a violinist of ability and has a host of friends and will undoubtedly make a success of his Soldiers Club, 622 Elm street, Northeast.

Men Wanted

We want fifty men who are not in the habit of attending any Bible school to visit our men's class at the First Baptist church Sunday morning at 9:45.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Best Today
There are a few photoplay stars who are so ably supported by talented screen players as is Lila Lee in "Such a Little Pirate," which will be shown at the Best theatre today. The play was directed by George Melford and the scenario was prepared by Monte M. Katterjohn from the story by James Oliver Curwood, "Peggy, the Pirate."

At the Best Tomorrow
"The First Law," Irene Castle's photoplay, which will come to the Best theatre tomorrow, may properly be said to be a celebrated and beautiful dancer's farewell to the millions of Americans who admire her.

Mrs. Castle has gone to France to entertain the soldiers at the front and when her late husband, Captain Vernon Castle, was killed in his pilot seat on an army aeroplane. Mrs. Castle declared that she would give her services unreservedly for the balance of the war.

She was in the first contingent of the American entertainments to sail for the other side. "The First Law" was completed only a fortnight before her husband's tragic death.

At the Best Monday

George McDaniel, who plays the part of Webster Hilton in "Shark Monroe," the latest Artcraft Picture starring William S. Hart, which will be seen at the Best theatre Monday of the sea scenes aboard the sealing had a thrilling experience when some schooner, "The Gull," were filmed. The scenes were taken during a storm, and McDaniel had to climb out on the bowsprit while huge waves were breaking over it. Then the situation called for "Shark" Monroe, played by Hart, to rescue him, and the two actors had a narrow escape from drowning during a few thrilling moments. But they escaped and the result is a remarkable scene that all lovers of the film drama will watch with breathless interest.

COMMUNITY DINNER CHAMBER COMMERCE

One of Most Elaborate and Best Attended in History of the Civic Organization

THE COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS

One Hundred and Fifty Present at Dinner, Excellent Addresses, Genuine Enthusiasm

One of the best and most largely attended community dinners was that given at the Chamber of Commerce by the organization on Friday evening. One hundred and fifty enjoyed the meal, listened to the addresses and reports and then took part in a round table discussion with the subject of club and city improvement uppermost in their minds.

A group of prominent ladies under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Thabes, county chairman of the American Red Cross, had charge of the details of the dinner, offering their services as an appreciation of the efficient part the chamber has taken in the war work of the community during the past year.

President J. A. Thabes.

Dr. J. A. Thabes, president of the Chamber of Commerce, expressed his pleasure at having such a representative gathering present. It showed the city was alive, that men were proud of their home town, glad they were living here. The outlook for the coming year was bright and if all did their part the city would advance. He urged cooperation. There were many things to do and the program outlined by the secretary was an ambitious one. The past year had been almost entirely devoted to war activities. The year of 1919 would be one of civic work.

Secretary's Report

Fred T. Lincoln, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, submitted the following report:

It has been the custom of this office to submit to the Advisory Board at the annual dinner of that body, such recommendations and an outline of work and activities as, in the opinion of the secretary, can be successfully and profitably carried out during the year.

The meeting today is a joint meeting of the Advisory Board and the Chamber of Commerce corporation, the plan of holding a joint meeting having been adopted by the Chamber at a recent meeting.

The following suggestions are respectfully submitted:

1. Co-operation in road improvement work, especially in such work as will improve the highways leading into and from the city of Brainerd and the support of the Chamber in all street improvement projects within the city limits.
2. An energetic campaign of publicity through the medium of attractive booklets and literature, setting forth the attractions of the lake region adjacent to this city, our resorts and hotels, highways and natural advantages afforded the tourist.
3. The resumption of free auctions and market days in the interest of the farmer and the retail merchant.
4. Suitable demonstrations when ground is broken for the new N. P. depot and when the edifice is completed, also when the Scenic Highway in this county is completed.
5. Presentation of a plan for a suitable monument or memorial in honor of young men of Crow Wing county who have been in government service during the world war.

6. Support of a measure calculated to distribute the gross earnings tax of railroads in such manner as cities in which railroads have large holdings will profit hereby.

7. Continued opposition to the proposed tonnage tax on iron ore.

8. Establishment of a bureau to assist returned soldiers in securing employment.

9. Adoption of a systematic plan in the interests of better housing conditions and a survey of the city in order to be better able to assist new arrivals in securing satisfactory homes in Brainerd.

10. Continued efforts to provide a practical milk ordinance for the city, thus protecting the public health and encouraging the dairy-men or distributor of pure milk.

11. Co-operation with the labor unions in putting on a community picnic on Labor Day on a larger scale than ever undertaken in the city.

12. Continuation of the Labor Bureau, established two years ago for the purpose of assisting the farmer and manufacturers in securing help as well as aiding deserving labor in securing employment.

13. Establishment of a Town and Country club near the city and on the shores of a lake if possible, with golf links and tennis courts as an attraction for tourists and an advertisement for Brainerd.

14. Loyal support and patronage of Brainerd business houses, hotels and all local industries in preference to outside establishments and the encouragement of the Trade-at-home idea.

15. Continued interest in and support of the farm organizations of the county and encouragement of the friendly relations between farmer and business man.

16. Trade extension auto tours to cities and localities within a radius of forty miles and which are recognized as within the trade zone of this city.

17. Support of the government to effect deep-waterways connections between the ocean and the Great Lakes by means of canal which would greatly improve the shipping facilities of Minnesota ports and thus benefit the entire state.

18. Consideration of the government plan to provide lands for returned soldiers and the encouragement of the movement to bring new settlers to Northern Minnesota.

19. Continuation of the Chamber of Commerce as the community center of the city and county, affording its rooms and equipment gratis to promote all worthy movements and projects intended for the benefit of the general public and community.

20. Co-operation with the city officials in all plans for the improvement of the city and the benefit of the general public.

21. Support of plan to enlarge and improve the Y. M. C. A. building in Brainerd.

Many of the suggestions herewith noted have already been approved of and are being followed; others are new to us and will require careful consideration of the directorate. It is the secretary's object to outline at the beginning of the year our aims in order that when the twelve months of 1919 have been recorded, a summary of what we have done to realize these ambitions may be made. Again, it is but fair to our members and to the general public that the hopes and ambitions of their community organization be plainly and honestly expressed early in the year.

These recommendations are respectfully submitted in the hope that some of them at least may be considered worthy of support and an earnest effort made to bring about their realization.

Rev. Father J. J. O'Mahoney.

Rev. Father J. J. O'Mahoney of St. Francis Catholic church spoke on the value of kindness. Brainerd was an ideal place in which to live. He had been here 13 years or more, he knew everybody. All were in one great society and all should labor for the advancement of Brainerd regardless that some may differ on things. Even Adam and Eve had their differences.

Brainerd, located centrally in Minnesota, was in the garden spot and center of the grand lake region of Minnesota. The country was known even in the extreme east.

He paid a tribute to Dr. J. A. Thabes, praised his work in charity and as a physician. He commended Secretary Lincoln for his achievements in the Chamber of Commerce.

Kindness was a great attribute and after everything was said and done, it was the kindly word and deed that counted. Kindness was a sovereign remedy and should be the guiding maxim of the Chamber.

Father O'Mahoney's address was an inspiring one, thrilled his auditors and gave general satisfaction.

W. H. Gemmell

W. H. Gemmell, vice president of the Chamber, spoke of the soldiers coming home from France and of the love the men had for the Red Cross, Salvation Army and other welfare organizations. At St. Paul the Red Cross had a hut at the depot and there gave soldiers and sailors things they needed.

"We in Brainerd and Crow Wing county appreciate what the Red Cross has done," said Mr. Gemmell in conclusion and resolutions he presented paying a tribute to the Red Cross were adopted.

W. C. Cobb.

W. C. Cobb, head of the Brainerd city schools, spoke on woman and her work. Since July, 1914, there had been a considerable change in the attitude of the world toward woman. America and the Allies

PINE RIVER FIRE BURNS BIG SECTION

Pine River, Minn., Jan. 25.—Heroic work on the part of Pine River saved the business section from complete destruction by fire which started at one o'clock this morning in the Lillstrom block.

From there it spread rapidly until the whole side of the street just south of the Spurrier hotel was blazing and in ashes. It entailed complete losses of buildings and stocks of E. P. Peters meat market, P. E. Lillstrom confectionery store, George Bell restaurant and hall which was a two story structure, the Leef two-story building and a bank and insurance office.

The fire swept southward and crept to the fire hall. The Northwestern Telephone Exchange office, fire hall and the depot across the street to the west were saved.

To the east the fire touched the banks across the street, but hard work saved them and the nearby postoffice.

Toll lines of the Northwestern Telephone Exchange Co. were burned out.

The depot and yards of the Minnesota & International Railway company were saved.

Eye witnesses assert the wind blew toward the hotel. The management nailed boards over the windows and used wet blankets and saved windows and hotels from destruction. At one time the fire might have been handled with a chemical when it started, but windows were broken in to get at the blaze and the draft thus started could not be checked by a chemical.

VILLA WARNS MINING MEN

Foreigners Told to Keep Clear of Mexican Politics.

El Paso, Jan. 25.—American and English mining men at the Santa Eulalia camp, 15 miles southeast of Chihuahua City, were warned to keep clear of Mexican politics under the penalty of attack by Francisco Villa when his band raided that town, according to private advisers received here. Villa made no demands for money or food upon the foreign mining concerns, but took such supplies as town.

DELCO-LIGHT

Increases Farm Efficiency

Fifty thousand Delco-Light plants in operation on American farms are saving at the most conservative estimate, an hour a day each—or over 18,000,000 work hours a year. That is equal to an army of 60,000 men working ten hours a day for a full month.

Delco-Light is a complete electric light and power plant for farms and suburban homes. It furnishes an abundance of clean, safe, economical light, and operates pump, churn, cream separator, washing machine and other appliances. It is also lighting rural stores, garages, churches, schools, army camps and railway stations.

Fiction at the Front.

There is war fiction and war fiction, but the best of it is that which is never published, according to a second lieutenant of a labor regiment somewhere in the S. O. S., whose special duty it is to censor the letters of the organization.
"As I lay there I could hear the Germans talking in low tones. They were so near that I could have put my hand out and touched them."
This was the way a man in a labor regiment began a letter to his best girl back home. It was a letter which would have made the heart of anybody's best girl jump with pride.
The censoring lieutenant had had some trouble with certain members of his command, who persisted in writing glowing accounts of incidents which had never happened, so he determined to make an immediate example in this case.
When the man stood before him he asked him what he meant by writing such a letter.
"Everything I have written is true," was the reply. "I was merely telling about the German prisoners we have working in this camp."—Stars and Stripes, France.

were indebted to woman for what had been her contribution toward winning the war. She performed her part in the crisis, without her victory could not be gained. The time was coming when woman would vote here and in all civilized countries.

There was now no question about a woman problem, the point was, "What would the women do with the men?" He closed with a poetic tribute.

Rev. E. A. Cooke.

Rev. E. A. Cooke, pastor of the First Methodist church, pleaded for a plan of city development and beautifying, one which would interest the growing generation, one which would by its scope gain the support of all and in so doing reduce factions and unite the city.

Asked to speak on community welfare, he appreciated the community and life in Brainerd. He had found here fine people and delightful associations. A great asset was the scenery and location of the city. He recommended the setting apart of sections of the north state as playgrounds for the people.

He recommended a survey of present resources and the adoption of a plan so that the city would grow with symmetry. Then he favored having pictures made of proposed improvements and shown the children by stereopticon or otherwise. By centering people on a big project, it would remove many petty differences. At the close of this war all towns entered on a reconstruction basis. The boys from over there were returning with a broader vision and outlook.

A town to be worth while should support not only its commercial interests, but also its homes. The Americanization council promised to do quite a little towards amalgamating Brainerd.

To the city council should be elected men, broad minded, public spirited. And when such men were elected on council and school board, they should have the solid support of the people. He recommended a woman on the school board because over half the scholars and teachers were feminine.

The churches were trying to get together on a common basis, and if the churches can do this, then the merchants should be able to do so too. Red Wing had been built up on commercial lines and made a wonderful success. Seattle was praised for its vision and spirit.

The speaker referred to the possibilities of the country adjacent to Brainerd, stock raising and dairying. He extolled the maxim that what helped one, helped all. At the conclusion he recommended a survey of the city, of its possibilities and urged all to work for an ideal city.

R. R. Wise

R. R. Wise was introduced as one of Brainerd's most enthusiastic citizens. Mr. Wise modestly said he had never been in politics, but he would like the job of judge advocate. He would like to pass sentence on any culprit who condemned the Chamber of Commerce and then he outlined one which would make a man's hair curl.

C. A. Albright

C. A. Albright was asked to take the side of the defendant in a case before Judge Wise. It was a hard job all right and Mr. Albright said Fred Farrar had his speech.

Rev. E. G. Carlson

Rev. E. G. Carlson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, said there were three requisites all preachers should be prepared for: ready to speak, ready to beg money and ready to die at any time. He had enjoyed the meeting, and the thought it had developed. He spoke of his work as chairman of Red Cross civilian relief and praised the Chamber for the cooperation afforded. He urged that 1919 be made a year when citizens and members of the Chamber pull together.

Vice President Presides

Vice President W. H. Gemmell then presided and called attention to the new depot promised Brainerd by the Northern Pacific railway company. A water color picture of the three-story building was mounted on a fire place of the Chamber.

George D. LaBar

George D. LaBar, chairman of the railway committee, spoke on committee work done and voiced the appreciation of Brainerd in the new depot, marking the culmination of the committee's work in success.

H. F. Michael

H. F. Michael spoke on cooperation of merchants and mentioned the garment making industry of Cleveland, Ohio.

Carl Zapffe

Carl Zapffe said the plans for the improvement of Brainerd were especially pleasing to him. He urged the carrying on of municipal improvements to give employment to the boys returning from the war and in line with this was the new water supply and distribution system planned.

Dr. A. W. Ide

Dr. A. W. Ide, referred to as a citizen about to leave Brainerd because of the removal of the railway hospital, made short remarks, Brainerd in general is loth to lose the doctor and the institution and hoped it will never come to pass.

A. L. Hoffman

A. L. Hoffman, chairman of the finance committee, spoke briefly because of a severe cold and delegated the task of reading his remarks to John A. Hoffbauer and the latter then made them public. He thanked the committee on committees for his re-appointment and quoted this poetry:

I had a dream the other night, when everything was still,
I dreamed I saw Dave Schrader coming up the hill,
His hands were full of applications, that after Lincoln counted,
Totalled up 1,000, which on the board he mounted.

This part of Mr. Hoffman's dream was enough to wake any man but he continued on and beheld a fitting memorial erected for the soldiers and sailors in the shape of an auditorium to be known as Memorial hall, its walls adorned with the photographs and names of Crow Wing county men in war service.

As committee men Mr. Hoffman named A. T. Fisher, G. S. Swanson, Wm. Nelson and Chas. W. Hoffman.

Soldier Boys

Attention was called to the men in war service present including Private John Olson, Private Thompson, Private Anton Swanson, Dr. W. A. Erickson, O. A. Peterson, Al Mraz, Senator George H. Gardner.

Pvt. John Olson.

Private John Olson praised the Chamber for courtesies extended and the boys appreciated it and were glad to make the Chamber headquarters. He also praised the Y. M. C. A. and the privileges extended by that association.

Pvt. Thompson

Private Thompson had good words for the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. and gave short experiences in southern training camps.

Wise Resolution

A resolution by R. R. Wise thanking the Red Cross ladies for the fine supper served was adopted by a rising vote.

D. D. Schrader

D. D. Schrader, chairman of the membership committee, said it would be quite a task to equal A. L. Hoffman's dream of 1,000 memberships. It could be set as a goal and eventually reached by every man boosting for the Chamber.

Rev. Hans Wolner

Rev. Hans Wolner, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, gave a happy talk. He liked Brainerd, its people and institutions. He was a member of the Chamber and would do all he could for it.

F. H. Simpson

F. H. Simpson of the Citizens State bank spoke of the Y. M. C. A. and its needs, and asked that Edward Crust tell of the needs of the institution.

Edward Crust

Edward Crust said a swimming pool and larger gymnasium were absolutely necessary and the improvements could be made at less cost than building a new structure. He referred to a court house of modern design to suit requirements of the county and that it could be made a memorial for the boys who served in the war.

Ernest Butler

Ernest Butler of Butler Brothers, new manager of the Ransford, detailed the policy to be pursued in conducting that popular institution. A good hotel was an asset to any city and they would strive to keep the Ransford in the front ranks.

Senator George H. Gardner
Senator George H. Gardner, who served as secretary of Judge Advocate Crowder, spoke of the gross earnings tax and its need of a more equitable distribution. He also referred to the iron ore tax and the court house and that the new court house should be built.

Splendid Meeting

The meeting was one of the best in years. Planned largely by President Thabes and Secretary Lincoln, every detail was worked out to perfection. The tables glistening with china and silver and decorated with carnation bouquets, gave way later to chairs and the assemblage seated itself closely in the main room and listened to program and impromptu talks. Music was furnished by an orchestra under the direction of Richard H. Rehl.

If only half of the enthusiasm generated yields results, a big step in city progress will have been undertaken.

SENATE PASSES RELIEF MEASURE

Approves Bill Appropriating $100,000,000 to Furnish Food for Europe.

VOTE STANDS 53 TO 18

Three Democrats and Fifteen Republicans Oppose Granting Request of President Wilson for Emergency Fund.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The senate after a week of spirited debate, by a vote of 53 to 18, passed the administration bill appropriating $100,000,000 for food relief in Europe and the Near East. The fund was urged by President Wilson as a means of checking the westward spread of Bolshevism. The measure now goes to conference for adjustment of minor senate amendments but leaders believe final enactment will be accomplished next week. Senator Martin of Virginia, the Democratic leader, and Overman of North Carolina, and Warren of Wyoming, were appointed senate conferees.

One Important Change. The most important senate amendment changed the house section against feeding enemy people so that nationalities friendly to the United States and the Allies may be aided. Amendments designed to limit the power of President Wilson or Food Administrator Hoover in distribution of the fund were rejected recently by the senate and no final effort was made today for their adoption.

On the final roll call 15 Republicans and three Democrats voted against the bill's passage, while 34 Democrats and 19 Republicans joined in its support. Senators Sutherland of West Virginia and Nelson of Minnesota absent, were announced as favoring the measure.

Senator Cummins of Iowa, Republican, and Thomas of Colorado, Democrat, who were present but paired, announced that they opposed the bill. It also was announced that Senator Vardaman of Mississippi, who was absent, would have voted in the negative.

Opponents Make Last Stand. Opponents of the bill made a final stand against it today with Senators La Follette of Wisconsin, Borah of Idaho and Sherman of Illinois, Republicans, leading the fight. Senators Knox of Pennsylvania, Colt of Rhode Island and Smith of Michigan, spoke in support of the appropriation.

Senator La Follette said the bill was neither a war, peace nor charitable measure and declared that the "horns and hoofs of the beef trust" could be seen through the bill's "mantle of charity." Declaring the unemployment situation in American was "grave and menacing," Mr. La Follette said government resources should be used for American problems rather than to aid European peoples.

WILLARD AGREES TO FIGHT

Champion Signs to Meet Any Opponent for $100,000.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—A purse of $100,000 drew Jess Willard, the heavyweight champion, out of retirement.

Tex Rickard, famous promoter of the Joe Gans-Battling Nelson fight and the heavyweight championship battle between Jim Jeffries and Johnson, obtained Willard's signature to a set of articles to fight any opponent. He agreed to box any number of rounds up to 40. The match will be decided next July, probably on the Fourth. Willard will receive $100,000, win, lose or draw.

Rickard said that either Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight, or Jack Dempsey, who has been clamoring for a match with the champion, would be Willard's opponent.

The children were slain in their beds while asleep. "I killed them because they were better dead than sick," the mother is reported to have told her husband and neighbors.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The senate committee investigating German propaganda put into the record a list of names of 62 men and women, many of them instructors in colleges and universities, who, Archibald Stevenson, of the Military Intelligence Bureau, had testified earlier in the week, "hold radical and pacifist views." Mr. Stevenson said the names were obtained in investigations by the Military Intelligence Bureau.

Included in the list, which the witness designated as a "who's who" are the names of Miss Jane Addams of Chicago; Frederic C. Howe, commissioner of immigration at New York; David Starr Jordan, chancellor emeritus of Leland Stanford Jr. University; Morris Hillquit, Scott Nearing, Oswald Garrison Villard and Eugene V. Debs. When Mr. Stevenson referred to the list last Wednesday during his testimony the senate committee went into executive session to decide whether the names should be inserted into the record of the investigation but no decision was announced until now.

King Nicholas of Montenegro Looking After His Job

By Wm. Phillip Simms (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, Jan. 25.—King Nicholas, the aged ruler of Montenegro, believes his nation should enjoy the same right of self determination as larger countries. He expressed confidence today that the peace congress will enforce the application of this principle. In an interview with the United Press Nicholas declared that Serbia is attempting to force Montenegro to join with Serbia in the formation of a Jugo-Slav state. This alleged attitude of Serbia is believed to have constituted one of the elements which resulted in this warning issued yesterday by the supreme war council that claims to territory seized by an army will not receive recognition from the peace congress. Nicholas, who is living in the Hotel Rue de Rivoli is watching the peace conference closely to determine whether he is to be a king without a kingdom, or the ruler of an independent nation. He declared he is an enthusiastic supporter of President Wilson's policies and that he is willing to abide by the Wilson test.

ASK REGULATION OF STOCK PRICES

Presidents of Two Meat Packing Firms Say Stable Market Will Result.

HENEY ASKS QUESTIONS

J. Ogden Armour Appears Before Senate Agriculture Committee, Louis F. Swift Before House Commerce Body.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Presidents of two meat packing firms which do an annual business of about $2,000,000,000 urged before congressional committees the regulation of live stock prices so as to assure a stable market, either through continuing the food administration or by establishing some similar system of control.

Swift and Armour Heard. Louis F. Swift of Swift & Co., concluding an appearance of two days before the House Interstate Commerce committee, said a stable price over periods of production was desirable and declared that if food administration restrictions were removed now, disaster would result.

J. Ogden Armour of Armour & Co., told the Senate Agriculture committee that some means of assuring a price level for some time would be agreeable to the packers, repeating reasons he had outlined earlier before the house committee.

Member of each committee evinced considerable interest in the statements of the packers and Representative Stephens of Nebraska announced he thought there ought to be some government agency to control prices irrespective of war conditions.

Henevy Asks Questions. Examination of Mr. Armour developed new interest when the senate committee asked Francis J. Henevy, who conducted the Federal Trade commission's investigation of the meat packing industry, to question the witness. Unfairness of method and inaccuracy in deduction are some of the complaints which the packers have made against the commission's inquiry and Senator Page of Vermont, inquired if the committee's hearing was to "degenerate into a prosecution."

Levy Mayer, counsel for Mr. Armour, consented to the examination on being accorded the privilege of questioning witnesses.

Violent fluctuations of prices were predicted by Mr. Swift if food administration control should be removed. Like Mr. Armour, however, he seemed dubious that governmental control over the sale of livestock at agreed prices would be practicable in normal times.

"Anything that will make for a steady average price is better than the same price reached through sharp declines and increases," Mr. Swift said.

LEADERS ARE WORRIED

Strike Epidemic in Berlin Causing Great Anxiety.

Gas Workers Compel Granting of Six-Hour Day and Large Increase in Wages.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—Socialist leaders are showing uneasiness at the strike epidemic in Berlin, and particularly the strikes of the electric, gas and other municipal workers whose position enables them to exert compliance with their demands from public or private employers.

In common with the bourgeoisie press, the Socialist Vorwaerts points out the disloyal nature of the strike of electric workers by which hundreds of thousands suffered great hardships.

The aldermen of Charlottenburg, a working class district of Berlin, at a common council meeting criticized the workers' attitude. The criticism came from members of all parties.

The employees of the city gas works, who were granted an eight-hour day only recently, have now, under a threat to paralyze the gas supply, compelled the granting of a six-hour day and an increase in wages amounting to 12-500,000 marks annually.

3,700,000 RIFLES ON HAND

Ordnance Department Also Has Large Ammunition Supply.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Maj. Gen. C. T. Williams, chief of ordnance, described to the house military committee steps taken by his department to prevent the country from going back to the state of unpreparedness it was in before the war.

"The Ordnance department now has 3,700,000 rifles, 2,000,000,000 rounds of ammunition and enough artillery ammunition to supply 48 divisions for six months," said General Williams. "Similarly large quantities of other equipment is being held."

Paris Paper Says Wilson Is Likely to Be Offered Presidency of World Body.

INDORSES INDEMNITIES

President Agrees to Principle That Germany Must Pay Indemnities and Make Reparation—Slav Leaders Oppose Meeting.

Paris, Jan. 25.—The peace congress has decided to appoint a committee to inquire into the strength of the forces to be maintained by the Allied and associated powers on the western front during the period of the armistice. The committee will be composed of Marshal Ferdinand Foch, General Tasker H. Bliss, General Diaz, Winston Spencer Churchill, the British minister of war, and M. Loucheur, French minister of reconstruction.

Paris, Jan. 25.—The Echo de Paris says President Wilson may be offered the presidency of the commission of the league of nations. By the commission of the league of nations probably is meant the permanent executive body for the conduct of the proposed league's affairs.

Russian leaders here think that the decision of the supreme council of the peace congress to invite bolshevik leaders to a conference constitutes the greatest victory that bolshevism could ever hope to attain. It would not be surprising, however, if the bolsheviks would refuse to participate in the meeting, they say, using the same "impertinent language" which they have already adopted in their communications with President Wilson.

Sergius Sazanov, former Russian foreign minister, and Prince Lvov are united in their opposition to the plan, insisting that the nonbolshevik element of Russia, which is largely in the majority here, will be adversely influenced by the decision. Wilson Indorses Indemnities. During consideration of the question of reparation at the meeting of the supreme war council, the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail says, President Wilson agreed to the principle that Germany must be made to pay indemnities in addition to the full cost of reparation.

At the instance of the British representatives, the newspaper adds, discussion was also begun on the questions of the abolition of conscription and general disarmament. It says it is possible that the plenary session of the peace congress will give some attention to these questions.

In the future, the Daily Mail says, there will be one full meeting of the full peace conference each week. The second session of the peace congress will be open to the press like the first.

The first subject will be international legislation on labor. Various national delegates have been preparing written statements of their views and these will be received by the congress and referred to a committee, which will endeavor to amalgamate them into a general project.

Slump in Rail Earnings.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Railroads in 1918 under government control and unusual war conditions earned about $718,000,000 or $250,000,000 less than in 1917, $370,000,000 less than in the record year of 1916, and about the same as in 1915. This became apparent on the basis of definite reports to the Interstate Commerce commissioner of earnings of 195 principal railroads. Although subject to slight revision, the figures afforded the first public view of the results of railway operations last year.

Workers in Fear of Lower Wages

THEIR LEADERS PREDICT THAT BREAD LINES AND STRIKES WILL BE THE RESULT.

Those Who Have Resigned Say Salary Was Too Small—Cutaway Coat Is Becoming the Favorite Garb Among the Senators.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—The widespread belief, which seems to be gaining ground, that wages must be reduced has caused considerable apprehension among laboring people. Already labor leaders are talking about possible bread lines if production in this country ceases or falls off to any large extent. Then strikes are predicted if attempts are made to reduce wages. Some of the Wants Power Modified.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Withdrawal immediately by congress of the arbitrary powers possessed by the President to fix freight rates was asked by Clifford Thorne, representing various shippers, before the senate interstate commerce committee. He said incalculable injury would be suffered by shippers unless this was done. Mr. Thorne told the committee that government operation of railroads was "so distasteful among the shippers that were a popular vote taken today, it would be defeated overwhelmingly."

So Mote It Be.
Sayeth the Apostle of Horsesense of Potato Hill, Kan., in his latest exposition: "I too, believe in human brotherhood; but a good many of the brothers must be policemen, and do their duty without fear or favor."—Rocky Mountain News.

There is quite a change in the senate in the matter of uniform or dress. It is common in these days to speak of clothes as uniforms. It is noticeable in the senate that the cutaways are driving out the "Jim Swingers." The latter is the term applied by certain southern men to the long frock coat which was habitually worn by southern statesmen. In fact the average southern congressman at one time did not think he was properly clothed unless he was wearing his "Jim Swinger." The cutaway is also encroaching upon the sack, or business coat, which was at one time affected to some extent by many members of the senate, particularly those from northern and business sections. Perhaps the time will come when the cutaway will be the uniform of the senate.

"I present a paper by one Henry F. Ashurst, entitled 'Arizona the Old New State, Rich in Scenic Grandeur, Romance, History, and Natural Resources.'"

That remark was made in the senate by Senator Ashurst of Arizona. Senator Thomas of Colorado in a satirical manner remarked that Ashurst was taking advantage of his colleague, Mark Smith, who was absent, and was filling up the Record with extraneous subjects. However, it was pointed out in a brief manner contained all that Ashurst claimed for it. It also contained a great deal of Ashurst's picturesque language.

While there has not been any very great decrease in the number of blacked soldiers in Washington, the dark blue of the navy is disappearing more rapidly. There were a great many naval reserves here during the war, women as well as men, and while they are still to be seen around the department, their ranks are growing thinner.

Senator Weeks of Massachusetts and the pleasure of reading a story in a Boston paper from a private soldier which described how his son, Captain Weeks of the artillery, by his own personal efforts and in grave danger of his life all the time, saved a dozen private soldiers who had been gassed and were suffocating in a trench. Naturally Senator Weeks has taken great pride in the success his son has made in the war.

Poor Buddy!

Carroll had two pet rabbits of which he was fond, so when one of them was killed by a neighbor's dog he felt bad indeed. Not long after this the other bunny acted droopy and sick. When Carroll noticed that the rabbit was not as usual, he went to his mother and said, "I think the bunny has caught itself sick."

Nurse, Wounded at the Front, Wouldn't Have Missed Experiences for World

MISS NETTIE E. JONSTON

On crutches but declaring that she would not have missed her experiences for the world, Miss Nettie Elizabeth Jonston, an army nurse, has just returned to this country aboard the hospital ship Comfort. She was wounded while administering to the boys at the front. She is shown here on the deck of the Comfort talking with a sailor just before landing.

Fellow-Feeling.

As a well-known Scottish divine was entering a car he noticed that some of the passengers were trying to eject a drunken man. The minister promptly intervened in his behalf and soothed him into respectability for the rest of his journey. Before leaving, however, the disturber again muttered angry words to the other passengers; then, seeing the reverend doctor's hands, he exclaimed: "Good day my fren; I see you ken what it is to be drunk!"

Singing Wires.

The singing of telegraph wires is sometimes regarded as a weather prognostic, though opinions differ as to the kind of weather it foretells. There has been much discussion as to the cause of this sound. Probably it is simply the aeolian harp effect, and its occurrence depends chiefly upon the direction of the wind in relation to the direction in which the wires run. Variations in the pitch of the sound depend upon changes in the tension of the wires with varying temperature.

'Ware Souvenirs.

Even "kultur" has its limitations. One of these is brought out in a letter from Private Ralph G. Kilbon of the Sixteenth engineers. He says: "I am in a dugout that was very hastily abandoned by a 'kultured' Boche. He was 'kultured' enough to have a nice feather tick in his bunk, which I appreciate in spite of the fact that even his 'kultur' didn't keep it from being alive. However, he left me his helmet for a box and plenty of candles to light up the place. There is everything in the line of souvenirs that one could ask, but everything I have goes on my back, with an overcoat, blankets, raincoat, shelter tent and extra clothes, so the souvenirs will stay just about where they are, unless somebody comes along with a truck."

Jack of All Trades.

Edinburgh once enjoyed the distinction of possessing the most prolific signboard on record: "John Main, Stationer. Bibles, Testaments, Psalms, Hymns, Prayer Books, Catechisms, Proverbs, Books, new and old, in various branches of literature. Money or exchange for old Books; Papers, Pens, and Ink; Wax and Wafers; Black-boards, Hair and Hair Pencils; Coloured Books, Memorandum Books, Religious Tracts. Books neatly bound, on moderate terms."

Railroading.

Clyde Foster, a south side youngster, has been much impressed recently by warnings about the care of his health so that he would not "catch" the influenza and die and be taken to the cemetery. His father is a railroad man, and when Santa Claus came around Clyde received a fine choo-choo train. He was proudly exhibiting it to some neighbors, who asked how much it cost to ride on his train. "Three dollars," he said. "Where can you go for $3?" one asked.

"Crown Hill," Clyde promptly answered.—Indianapolis News.

What Johnny Needed.

"Johnny! Crying on Christmas day!" reproved the visitor. "Well," blubbered Johnny, "we all asked our family this year to give us what we needed most." "There's nothing to cry about, then, is there?" "It's a beauty!" roared Johnny. "Pa gave me a licking."—London Answers.

CLAIM CURE FOR GLANDERS

Italian Savants' Discovery, If True, Will Have Earned Them the Gratitude of Mankind.

The reviews of medicine and veterinary surgery speak of important researches looking to the cure of glanders, which afflicts horses and may also attack man, who almost invariably succumbs.

At the beginning of the war the spread of glanders, especially among the quadrupeds of the Third Italian army, suggested to Colonel Commanding Dr. E. Bertelli, director of the veterinary service of the army, the idea of utilizing the victims of glanders in making experiments in regard to its curability.

Obtaining permission of the war ministry and the supreme command of the army, the experiments were begun at Casale in a sanatorium rigorously quarantined and equipped with all the latest scientific and surgical appliances.

Dr. Guido Finzi, head of the Institute of Pathology and Medical Clinics of the Superior Veterinary School of Turin, assisted Doctor Bertelli. After two years they announced that glanders was curable, not only in its chronic stage but also in its process of evolution.

The importance of the discovery and the evidence of the results obtained led the two experimenters to ask for a commission to make practical tests of their discoveries. The results fully confirmed the facts announced by Doctors Bertelli and Finzi.

PUT HYPNOTISM TO GOOD USE

Australian Physician Announces That He Has Cured War Stammering by His Employment.

Writing in the Medical Journal of Australia, Dr. Clarence G. Godfrey states that during the past two years a number of cases have been referred to him for treatment by hypnotic suggestion, in which stammering or stuttering had developed, or had been revived, after years of disappearance, as the result of shell shock or of various war stresses. Sometimes a hypnotized patient has been told to keep on repeating some well-known nursery rhyme and not to cease at the signal to awake, although in the middle of the rhyme, but to keep on talking. He will usually manifest his astonishment at finding himself talking without difficulty. Sometimes a patient will converse on waking without realizing that his stammering has disappeared until his attention is drawn to it with amusing effect. In one case the patient spoke perfectly in sleep at the first attempt to hypnotize him, although he had had a very bad stutter for eight months past, being almost inarticulate. He woke in a few minutes apparently cured and has been free from stutter ever since.

It has been noticed that every case treated, even the worst, has been able to speak far better in the hypnotic state than out of it.

Little-Known Hero.

Of the many stories of heroism during the war on which official records are silent but which are being brought forth with relaxation of the censorship is that of Captain Larcombe of the antiaircraft defenses of the London (Eng.) district. His job for four years has been to find and dispose of German aerial bombs that failed to explode when dropped on London.

After each air raid, and in the early part of the war there were many, Larcombe and his men would go about the city seeking the "duds." It was dangerous work extricating them from wherever they happened to drop, transporting them out of the city and exploding or otherwise destroying them. During the excitement after a raid few people thought of the bombs that failed to "go off," but all of them have ceased to be a menace to the city.

Laughter.

"Laughter is man's own attribute," says Rabelais, and from the time man began to think of other matters than eating and waging war he has wooed laughter in some form or other according to his ideas of what is comical. The early pictured jokes on canvas, stone and paper are not conducive to wild hilarity at this day and age, but they amused the people of the time and in making men laugh helped to civilize the race.

BONDS MUST BE SOLD AT PAR WITH ACCRUED INTEREST

A representative of a bonding company conferred with the members of the city council recently it is reported, concerning the water bonds which it is hoped the voters will authorize at the spring election to build a new water plant. It is understood that he stated his company could handle the bonds drawing five per cent at 97 cents on the dollar, and many business men thought the offer a good one.

There was a case decided in the district court here now in session wherein the county of Koochiching recovered a verdict of many thousands of dollars from John Nuveen & Co., of Chicago, because the county commissioners of that county sold to the Chicago bankers county bonds for less than par, when a state law requires that county bonds shall not be sold for less than par and accrued interest, the amount of the verdict being the difference between the amount paid for the bonds and the par value thereof, and accrued interest. The court on that occasion instructed the jury that the contract for the sale of the bonds was fraudulent because of its evasion of the law.

The city charter of the city of Brainerd has a similar provision with reference to the sale of city bonds, hence according to the verdict of this jury and the instructions of the judge on that occasion, no offer for city bonds below par and accrued interest would be legal, and cannot be accepted.

The plan advanced by the company of paying full amount or par for the bonds and charging three per cent for supervising their issue is an evasion of the law and thus held by the courts, and would not alter the situation.

NO PENALTY IS PROVIDED

Profiteering by Retail Food Dealers Is Unlawful.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Profiteering by retail food dealers is unlawful—but that's all. There is no proscribed punishment for violators.

This announcement was made by the Food Administration following complaint that retail food dealers in New York and other cities are profiteering by failure to reduce prices for eggs, butter, veal, pork and other foods, in keeping with the recent reductions in wholesale prices.

New Irish Home Rule Party.

Dublin, Jan. 25.—A new political association called the Irish Center party, has been formally constituted. Stephen Gwynn, former member of parliament, was appointed chairman of the provisional executive committee of the new party, which embraces the constitutional nationalists and southern Unionists. Its platform includes home rule for Ireland within the British empire on similar lines to those which are adhered to throughout the British dominions.

May be Mr. Gregory's Successor in Cabinet

Washington, Jan. 25.—The first open opposition to seating Victor Berger of Wisconsin as a member of the house came in a statement from Representative Gillett of Massachusetts, candidate for speaker in the next congress. Gillett said that the refusal to seat Berger should be the very first act of the next house, because Berger was found guilty of charges of disloyalty. "The evidence convinces me of his disloyalty and I believe the country generally approves the verdict of the jury."

London, Jan. 25.—The widely circulated rumor that former King Manuel of Portugal was about to land on Portuguese territory is at least premature. Ex-King Manuel was still in London as this dispatch is sent.

Madrid, Jan. 25.—According to a telegram received here from Valencia on the Portuguese border, a monarchy has been proclaimed in Lisbon, the capital of Portugal.

Oporto Bombarded.
 London, Jan. 25.—A wireless dispatch received from Madrid says reports from frontier towns are to the effect that Portuguese war vessels are bombarding Oporto, which is still in the control of the monarchists.

The dispatch adds that rumors persist that former King Manuel is about to land in Portugal.

BAKER WELCOMES INQUIRY

Secretary Favors Probe of War Department Affairs.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The War Department will welcome a congressional investigation either into the affairs of the department or the conduct of the war, Secretary of War Baker and Chief of Staff March told the House Rules committee. If this action is taken, Secretary Baker promised that testimony of officers who have been in France would be made available.

Secretary Baker declared, however, that an accurate investigation, such as called for in a resolution by Representative Campbell of Kansas, into reports that the 35th division had suffered abnormal casualties because of faulty handling and poor care, was difficult at this time because the officers who had information as well as documents were all overseas.

OVERTHROW OF BOLSHEVIKI

Held to Be Only Solution of Troubles of Russia.

London, Jan. 25.—Paul N. Milukoff, former foreign minister of Russia, who is in London, was surprised when told that the Allies had invited the Bolsheviks of Russia to a conference. He said:

"The Bolsheviks are in no wise representative of the Russian people. They are robbers and cut-throats; mad dogs, dogs who wish to bite others so that all may be mad."

"Smile? Should Say So! I'm Lucky! I'm Back Home"

Six wounds and the burden of the Distinguished Service Cross, the Croix de Guerre and a number of citations in army orders cannot keep a smile from the bandaged face of Bob Slay, of the Seventy-seventh Division. As he put it when he was photographed during a stroll in New York city: "I'm lucky, I'm back home! That's enough, isn't it?"

Con.—How so? I don't see the connection.

United States' Fliers.

In his recent annual report Maj. Gen. William L. Kenley, director of military aeronautics, states that 4,993 men had been graduated as reserve military aviators, the first rating for pilots, by June 30, last, with 110 bombers, 83 bombing pilots, 461 observers, 389 observer pilots, and 131 pursuit pilots. In the year ended last June 30 there were 152 fatalities in training, or an average of one death to 2,684 hours and 201,000 miles flown. Stalled engines, usually due to an error of the pilot, caused 86 deaths; collisions, 30; and sideslips, 10. The report goes on further to state that 440 balloon officers also had graduated, 155 of whom were fully qualified observers during the year.—Scientific American.

Daily Health Talks

GOING BACK TO NATURE.

BY DR. W. LUCAS.

People get sick because they go away from Nature, and the only way to get well is to go back. Something grows out of the ground in the form of vegetation to cure almost every ill. Some of these vegetable growths are understood by man, and some are not. Animals, it would seem, know what to do when they are sick better than men and women. Observers have noted that a sick horse, dog or cat will stop eating food and seek out some vegetable growth in the field or yard, which, when found and eaten, often restores appetite and health. Haven't you seen these animals do this very thing yourself?

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found the herbs and roots provided by Nature to overcome constipation, and he had these vegetables collected and made up of Mayapple, leaves of Aloe, root of Jalap, into little white sugar-coated pills, that he called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. You must understand that when your intestines are stopped up, poisons and decayed matter are imprisoned in your system, and these are carried by the blood throughout your body. Thus does your head ache, you get dizzy, you can't sleep, your skin may break out, your appetite declines, you get tired and despondent. As a matter of fact, you may get sick all over. Don't you see how useless all this suffering is? All that is often needed is a few of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which he has placed in all drug stores for your convenience and health. Try them by all means. They are probably the very thing you need right now.

OLD BOXER DIES ON FIELD

Dick Burge, Once Well Known in This Country Met His Death Fighting in France.

Late Private Richard Burge of the First Surrey rifles never was a quitter, and despite the fact that he was at the half century mark, he enlisted and died the death of a soldier. He was once the lightweight champion of England, and was born December 19, 1865.

Dick Burge was a name well known to the fight fans on both sides of the Atlantic 20 years or so ago, chiefly because of his remarkable battle with Kid Lavigne for the lightweight championship of the world. Dick was several inches taller than the Sugnaw Kid, and he had a considerable advantage in weight, but, much to his surprise and that of the English fans, he was knocked out in the seventeenth round. He gave a good account of himself before he fell, however, and there were times when the Kid had reason to fear that he had taken on too good a man. After Burge quit the ring he became a fight promoter. That was in 1906. He enlisted as a volunteer in the British army in 1915 and served with the colors for three years. —Detroit Free Press.

World's Deaf-Mutes.

The amateur student of statistics will find plenty to ponder over in the figures as to the distribution of deaf-mutes throughout the world. A recent report on this phase of the census of the United States gives the proportion as 42.8 per 100,000, and shows that in the group of countries whose figures is 50 or less are English-speaking except Holland.—Oregonian.

City in Mountain.

In southern Tunisia is a mountain of considerable size called Doudrat, which once upon a time was an active volcano. Bubbles of volcanic gases made it a veritable honeycomb of caves, which in these days are inhabited. In fact, the whole mountain is a city—a human ant-hill, densely populated.

THE PROTESTANT CHURCHES OF CITY

Working Toward a Program of Cooperation to be Mutually Beneficial to All

COMMITTEE MEETING HELD

Final Report to be Submitted to the Ministers at their Association Gathering Monday

The protestant churches of Brainerd are working toward a program whereby they can cooperate along lines that will be mutually beneficial to all of them as well as for the moral and religious benefit of Brainerd. Several meetings have already been held for the purpose of finding a basis on which they can get together and much progress has been made. Yesterday the committee appointed for that purpose met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and prepared its final report which will be first submitted to the ministers at their association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Monday at 11 o'clock. It will then go before the representative meeting consisting of the pastor and one layman from each church, which will be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Some of the lines of work that are proposed are church publicity, religious census of the city, simultaneous evangelistic and other campaigns that may be mutually helpful.

It is recognized by all that this is a move in the right direction and it is expected that much good will come of it.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS STRONG

Poll More Than Ten Million Votes in German Elections.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—The German Social Democrats polled more than 10,000,000 votes in the elections of last Sunday, according to the Freiheit, as against 12,000,000 in the last Reichstag elections. Twenty added mandates would give them an absolute working majority in the national assembly. The majority Socialists are expected to have received 8,000,000 votes and the Independents a triple under 2,000,000.

For Employers' Consideration.

FIRST SOLDIER ORGANIZATION

Sergt. G. P. Hanson to Establish Soldiers Club at 622 Elm Street, Northeast

TO DUPLICATE SOLDIERS GYM

Orchestra, Dancing Class, Boxing and Wrestling Classes, Quartet and Singing Society

A soldiers organization, the first of its kind in Brainerd, has been announced in Northeast Brainerd.

Sergeant G. P. Hanson, who has just returned from the army, has secured the Van Walk property under construction as a dwelling and no further work is to be done making changes until spring. He will use the same and duplicate the soldier gymnasium of the army cantonments.

A reorganization of the Northeast Brainerd band is planned. Sergt. Hanson will train his orchestra and while rehearsing, has engaged George Safford, formerly of Minneapolis, to instruct a class in dancing, of whom thirty have been gained.

Instructors in boxing and wrestling, Messrs. Rash and Hubert, are to be gained.

Mr. Safford, who is a tenor singer, will organize a quartet and singing society. Proceeds above expenses of the club will at different times be donated to charitable purposes subject to the direction of the managers.

Sergt. Hanson also belonged to the Marine Corps and served his country during the South American trouble some years ago. In the late war he was advanced rapidly on account of his former service and training. He is a violinist of ability and has a host of friends and will undoubtedly make a success of his Soldiers Club, 622 Elm street, Northeast.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Best Today
There are a few photoplay stars who are so ably supported by talented screen players as is Lila Lee in "Such a Little Pirate," which will be shown at the Best theatre today. The play was directed by George Melford and the scenario was prepared by Monte M. Katterjohn from the story by James Oliver Curwood, "Every, the Pirate."

At the Best Tomorrow

"The First Law," Irene Castle's photoplay, which will come to the Best theatre tomorrow, may properly be said to be a celebrated and beautiful dancer's farewell to the millions of Americans who admire her.

Mrs. Castle has gone to France to entertain the soldiers at the front and when her late husband, Captain Vernon Castle, was killed in his first war on an army aeroplane, Mrs. Castle declared that she would give her services unreservedly for the balance of the war.

She was in the first contingent of the American entertainers to sail for the other side. "The First Law" was completed only a fortnight before her husband's tragic death.

At the Best Monday

George McDaniel, who plays the part of Webster Hilton in "Shark Monroe," the latest Arterial Picture starring William S. Hart, which will be seen at the Best theatre Monday of the sea scenes aboard the sealing had a thrilling experience when some fishermen, "The Gull," were filmed. The scenes were taken during a storm, and McDaniel had to climb out on the bowsprit while huge waves were breaking over it. Then the situation called for "Shark Monroe," played by Hart, to rescue him, and the two actors had a narrow escape from drowning during a few thrilling moments. But they escaped and the result is a remarkable scene that all lovers of the film drama will watch with breathless interest.

President J. A. Thabes.

Dr. J. A. Thabes, president of the Chamber of Commerce, expressed his pleasure at having such a representative gathering present. It showed the city was alive, that men were proud of their home town, glad they were living here. The outlook for the coming year was bright and if all did their part the city would advance. He urged cooperation. There were many things to do and the program outlined by the secretary was an ambitious one. The past year had been almost entirely devoted to war activities. The year of 1919 would be one of civic work.

Secretary's Report

Fred T. Lincoln, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, submitted the following report:

It has been the custom of this office to submit to the Advisory Board at the annual dinner of that body, such recommendations and an outline of work and activities as, in the opinion of the secretary, can be successfully and profitably carried out during the year.

The meeting today is a joint meeting of the Advisory Board and the Chamber of Commerce corporation, the plan of holding a joint meeting having been adopted by the Chamber at a recent meeting.

The following suggestions are respectfully submitted:

1. Co-operation in road improvement work, especially in such work as will improve the highways leading into and from the city of Brainerd and the support of the Chamber in all street improvement projects within the city limits.
2. An energetic campaign of publicity through the medium of attractive booklets and literature, setting forth the attractions of the lake region adjacent to this city, our resorts and hotels, highways and natural advantages afforded the tourist.
3. The resumption of free auctions and market days in the interest of the farmer and the retail merchant.
4. Suitable demonstrations when ground is broken for the new N. P. depot and when the edifice is completed, also when the scenic highway in this county is completed.
5. Presentation of a plan for a suitable monument or memorial in honor of young men of Crow Wing county who have been in government service during the world war.

6. Support of a measure calculated to distribute the gross earnings tax of railroads in such manner as cities in which railroads have large holdings will profit hereby.

7. Continued opposition to the proposed tonnage tax on iron ore.

8. Establishment of a bureau to assist returned soldiers in securing employment.

9. Adoption of a systematic plan in the interests of better housing conditions and a survey of the city in order to be better able to assist new arrivals in securing satisfactory homes in Brainerd.

10. Continued efforts to provide a practical milk ordinance for the city, thus protecting the public health and encouraging the dairy-men or distributor of pure milk.

11. Co-operation with the labor unions in putting on a community picnic on Labor Day on a larger scale than ever undertaken in the city.

12. Continuation of the Labor Bureau, established two years ago for the purpose of assisting the farmer and manufacturers in securing help as well as aiding deserving labor in securing employment.

13. Establishment of a Town and Country club near the city and on the shores of a lake if possible, with golf links and tennis courts as an attraction for tourists and an advertisement for Brainerd.

14. Loyal support and patronage of Brainerd business houses, hotels and all local industries in preference to outside establishments and the encouragement of the Trade-at-home idea.

15. Continued interest in and support of the farm organizations of the county and encouragement of the friendly relations between farmer and business man.

16. Trade extension auto tours to cities and localities within a radius of forty miles and which are recognized as within the trade zone of this city.

17. Support of the government to effect deep-waterways connections between the ocean and the Great Lakes by means of canal which would greatly improve the shipping facilities of Minnesota ports and thus benefit the entire state.

18. Consideration of the government plan to provide lands for returned soldiers and the encouragement of the movement to bring new settlers to Northern Minnesota.

19. Continuation of the Chamber of Commerce as the community center of the city and county, affording its rooms and equipment gratis to promote all worthy movements and projects intended for the benefit of the general public and community.

20. Co-operation with the city officials in all plans for the improvement of the city and the benefit of the general public.

21. Support of plan to enlarge and improve the Y. M. C. A. building in Brainerd.

Many of the suggestions herewith noted have already been approved of and are being followed; others are new to us and will require careful consideration of the directors.

It is the secretary's object to outline in the beginning of the year our aims in order that when the twelve months of 1919 have been recorded, a summary of what we have done to realize these ambitions may be made. Again, it is but fair to our members and to the general public that the hopes and ambitions of their community organization be plainly and honestly expressed early in the year.

These recommendations are respectfully submitted in the hope that some of them at least may be considered worthy of support and an earnest effort made to bring about their realization.

Rev. Father J. J. O'Mahoney.

Rev. Father J. J. O'Mahoney of St. Francis Catholic church spoke on the value of kindness. Brainerd was an ideal place in which to live. He had been here 13 years or more, he knew everybody. All were in one great society and all should labor for the advancement of Brainerd regardless that some may differ on things. Even Adam and Eve had their differences. Brainerd, located centrally in Minnesota, was in the garden spot and center of the grand lake region of Minnesota. The country was known even in the extreme east.

He paid a tribute to Dr. J. A. Thabes, praised his work in charity and as a physician. He commended Secretary Lincoln for his achievements in the Chamber of Commerce.

Kindness was a great attribute and after everything was said and done, it was the kindly word and deed that counted. Kindness was a sovereign remedy and should be the guiding maxim of the Chamber.

Father O'Mahoney's address was an inspiring one, thrilled his auditors and gave general satisfaction.

W. H. Gemmell

W. H. Gemmell, vice president of the Chamber, spoke of the soldiers coming home from France and of the love the men had for the Red Cross, Salvation Army and other welfare organizations. At St. Paul the Red Cross had a hut at the depot and there gave soldiers and sailors things they needed.

"We in Brainerd and Crow Wing county appreciate what the Red Cross has done," said Mr. Gemmell in conclusion and resolutions he presented paying a tribute to the Red Cross were adopted.

W. C. Cobb.

W. C. Cobb, head of the Brainerd city schools, spoke on woman and her work. Since July, 1914, there had been a considerable change in the attitude of the world toward woman. America and the Allies

PINE RIVER FIRE BURNS BIG SECTION

Fine River, Minn., Jan. 25.—Heroic work on the part of Pine River saved the business section from complete destruction by fire which started at one o'clock this morning in the Lillstrom block.

From there it spread rapidly until the whole side of the street just south of the Spurrier hotel was blazing and in ashes. It entailed complete losses of buildings and stocks of E. P. Peters meat market, P. E. Lillstrom confectionery store, George Bell restaurant and hall which was a two story structure, the Lee two-story building and a land and insurance office.

The fire swept southward and crept to the fire hall. The Northwestern Telephone Exchange office, fire hall and the depot across the street to the west were saved.

To the east the fire touched the banks across the street, but hard work saved them and the nearby postoffice.

Toll lines of the Northwestern Telephone Exchange Co. were burned out.

The depot and yards of the Minnesota & International Railway company were saved.

Eye witnesses assert the wind blew toward the hotel. The management nailed boards over the windows and used wet blankets and saved windows and hotels from destruction.

At one time the fire might have been handled with a chemical when it started, but windows were broken in to get at the blaze and the draft thus started could not be checked by a chemical.

DELCO-LIGHT

Increases Farm Efficiency

Fifty thousand Delco-Light plants in operation on American farms are saving at the most conservative estimate, an hour a day each—or over 18,000,000 work hours a year.

That is equal to an army of 60,000 men working ten hours a day for a full month.

Delco-Light is a complete electric light and power plant for farms and suburban homes.

It furnishes an abundance of clean, safe, economical light, and operates pump, churn, cream separator, washing machine and other appliances.

It is also lighting rural stores, garages, churches, schools, army camps and rail way stations.

Fiction at the Front.

There is war fiction and war fiction, but the best of it is that which is never published, according to a second lieutenant of a labor regiment somewhere in the S. O. S., whose special duty it is to censor the letters of the organization.

"As I lay there I could hear the Germans talking in low tones. They were so near that I could have put my hand out and touched them."

This was the way a man in a labor regiment began a letter to his best girl back home. It was a letter which would have made the heart of anybody's best girl jump with pride.

The censoring lieutenant had had some trouble with certain members of his command, who persisted in writing glowing accounts of incidents which had never happened, so he determined to make an immediate example in this case.

When the man stood before him he asked him what he meant by writing such a letter.

"Everything I have written is true," was the reply. "I was merely telling about the German prisoners we have working in this camp."—Stars and Stripes, France.

were indebted to woman for what had been her contribution toward winning the war. She performed her part in the crisis, without her victory could not be gained. The time was coming when woman would vote here and in all civilized countries.

There was now no question about a woman problem, the point was, "What would the women do with the men?" He closed with a poetic tribute.

Rev. E. A. Cooke.

Rev. E. A. Cooke, pastor of the First Methodist church, pleaded for a plan of city development and beautifying, one which would interest the growing generation, one which would by its scope gain the support of all and in so doing reduce factions and unite the city.

Asked to speak on community welfare, he appreciated the community and life in Brainerd. He had found here fine people and delightful associations. A great asset was the scenery and location of the city. He recommended the setting apart of sections of the north state as playgrounds for the people.

He recommended a survey of present resources and the adoption of a plan so that the city would grow with symmetry. Then he favored having pictures made of proposed improvements and shown the children by stereopticon or otherwise. By centering people on a big project, it would remove many petty differences. At the close of this war all towns entered on a reconstruction basis. The boys from over there were returning with a broader vision and outlook.

A town to be worth while should support not only its commercial interests, but also its homes. The Americanization council promised to do quite a little towards amalgamating Brainerd.

To the city council should be elected men, broad minded, public spirited. And when such men were elected on council and school board, they should have the solid support of the people. He recommended a woman on the school board because over half the scholars and teachers were feminine.

The churches were trying to get together on a common basis, and if the churches can do this, then the merchants should be able to do so too. Red Wing had been built up on commercial lines and made a wonderful success. Seattle was praised for its vision and spirit.

The speaker referred to the possibilities of the country adjacent to Brainerd, stock raising and dairying. He extolled the maxim that what helped one, helped all. At the conclusion he recommended a survey of the city, of its possibilities and urged all to work for an ideal city.

R. R. Wise

R. R. Wise was introduced as one of Brainerd's most enthusiastic citizens. Mr. Wise modestly said he had never been in politics, but he would like the job of judge advocate. He would like to pass sentence on any culprit who contended the Chamber of Commerce and then he outlined one which would make a man's hair curl.

C. A. Allbright

C. A. Allbright was asked to take the side of the defendant in a case before Judge Wise. It was a hard job all right and Mr. Allbright said Fred Farrar had his speech.

Rev. Eloy G. Carlson

Rev. Eloy G. Carlson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, said there were three requisites all preachers should be prepared for: ready to speak, ready to beg money and ready to die at any time. He had enjoyed the meeting, and the thought it had developed. He spoke of his work as chairman of Red Cross civilian relief and praised the Chamber for the cooperation afforded. He urged that 1919 be made a year when citizens and members of the Chamber pull together.

Vice President Presides

Vice President W. H. Gemmell then presided and called attention to the new depot promised Brainerd by the Northern Pacific railway company. A water color picture of the three-story building was mounted on a fire place of the Chamber.

George D. LaBar

George D. LaBar, chairman of the railway committee, spoke on committee work done and voiced the appreciation of Brainerd in the new depot, marking the culmination of the committee's work in success.

H. F. Michael

H. F. Michael spoke on cooperation of merchants and mentioned the garment making industry of Cleveland, Ohio.

Carl Zapffe

Carl Zapffe said the plans for the improvement of Brainerd were especially pleasing to him. He urged the carrying on of municipal improvements to give employment to the boys returning from the war and in line with this was the new water supply and distribution system planned.

Dr. A. W. Ide

Dr. A. W. Ide, referred to as a citizen about to leave Brainerd because of the removal of the railway hospital, made short remarks. Brainerd in general is loth to lose the doctor and the institution and hoped it will never come to pass.

A. L. Hoffman

A. L. Hoffman, chairman of the finance committee, spoke briefly because of a severe cold and delegated the task of reading his remarks to John A. Hoffbauer and the latter then made them public. He thanked the committee on committees for his reappointment and quoted this poetry:

I had a dream the other night, when everything was still,
I dreamed I saw Dave Schrader coming up the hill.
His hands were full of applications, that after Lincoln counted,
Totalled up 1,000, which on the board he mounted.

This part of Mr. Hoffman's dream was enough to wake any man but he continued on and beheld a fitting memorial erected for the soldiers and sailors in the shape of an auditorium to be known as Memorial hall, its walls adorned with the photographs and names of Crow Wing county men in war service.

As committee men Mr. Hoffman named A. T. Fisher, G. S. Swanson, Wm. Nelson and Chas. W. Hoffman.

Soldier Boys

Attention was called to the men in war service present including Private John Olson, Private Thompson, Private Anton Swanson, Dr. W. A. Erickson, O. A. Peterson, Al Mraz, Senator George H. Gardner.

Pvt. John Olson.

Private John Olson praised the Chamber for courtesies extended and the boys appreciated it and were glad to make the Chamber headquarters. He also praised the Y. M. C. A. and the privileges extended by that association.

Pvt. Thompson

Private Thompson had good words for the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. and gave short experiences in southern training camps.

Wise Resolution

A resolution by R. R. Wise thanking the Red Cross ladies for the fine supper served was adopted by a rising vote.

D. D. Schrader

D. D. Schrader, chairman of the membership committee, said it would be quite a task to equal A. L. Hoffman's dream of 1,000 memberships. It could be set as a goal and eventually reached by every man boosting for the Chamber.

Rev. Hans Wolner

Rev. Hans Wolner, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, gave a happy talk. He liked Brainerd, its people and institutions. He was a member of the Chamber and would do all he could for it.

F. H. Simpson

F. H. Simpson of the Citizens State bank spoke of the Y. M. C. A. and its needs, and asked that Edward Crust tell of the needs of the institution.

Edward Crust

Edward Crust said a swimming pool and larger gymnasium were absolutely necessary and the improvements could be made at less cost than building a new structure. He referred to a court house of modern design to suit requirements of the county and that it could be made a memorial for the boys who served in the war.

Ernest Butler

Ernest Butler of Butler Brothers, new manager of the Ransford, detailed the policy to be pursued in conducting that popular institution. A good hotel was an asset to any city and they would strive to keep the Ransford in the front ranks.

Senator George H. Gardner
Senator George H. Gardner, who

served as secretary of Judge Advocate Crowder, spoke of the gross earnings tax and its need of a more equitable distribution. He also referred to the iron ore tax and the court house and that the new court house should be built.

Splendid Meeting

The meeting was one of the best in years. Planned largely by President Thabes and Secretary Lincoln, every detail was worked out to perfection. The tables glistening with china and silver and decorated with carnation bouquets, gave way later to chairs and the assemblage seated itself closely in the main room and listened to program and impromptu talks. Music was furnished by an orchestra under the direction of Richard H. Rehl.

If only half of the enthusiasm generated yields results, a big step in city progress will have been undertaken.
